Outstanding Volunteer

We are pleased to recognize one of our faithful, quiet disciples with the Outstanding Volunteer recognition for this quarter. Curtis Maxwell became a member of our church in January, 2001, and the Maxwell family has been an essential part of our fellowship ever since. Nearly every Sunday finds Curtis with his wife, Kathy, and mother, Mary, present in worship. Curtis serves as one of our ushers for the 9:00 service. He has been an essential member of our Board of Trustees for several years, which means helping us maintain and repair this facility. Curtis, along with his wife, Kathy, provided essential leadership and time to make our Holiday Fair a huge success last year and Curtis currently chairs our new Architectural Selection Committee to guide us in the hiring of an architect for the new facility. He has a busy life outside of church, working as a cost estimator for Mato Insulation. He enjoys woodworking, stained glass creation, sports, hiking, traveling and working out with his son. He is very helpful to his mother, Mary, and for 3 years he hauled the instruments for the Bear Creek Marching Band. He has 4 children and 2 grandchildren (girls ages 5 and 3), who live in Pennsylvania. Thank you Curtis for your fine example of volunteerism, which is an inspiration to us all. God bless you!
