OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER Sheila Groome

Our outstanding volunteer for this quarter is Sheila Groome. Sheila has attended Lakewood United Methodist Church since 2001 becoming a member in 2005. She has served her church in many ways, including serving as an evening host and dinner host for the Interfaith Hospitality Network, helping with LUMC's "Heroes and Hot Dogs" neighborhood event honoring Lakewood's fire and rescue and law enforcement women and men, helping the Missions Team with the Christmas dinner for staff and caregivers at the Jefferson County Senior Resource Center. Sheila began serving on the Board of Trustees in 2006. She is currently doing a fantastic job chairing this hard working committee as they over see the church's entire facility and two parsonages. Sheila's amazing organizational abilities and her attention to detail helps to keep the committee running smoothly. Sheila's deep faith in God is evident in all of her service to the church. Sheila has also worked for other organizations, helping the Jeffco Action Center with the "Give Your Heart to JAC" Dinner and Thanksgiving and Christmas food distribution, helping out at Habitat for Humanity, the Applewood Optimist International Club, and WINN Ministries.

Thank you Sheila for all of the hard work you give to your church and community. We are all richly blessed by your presence! Read more about Sheila in the April Flame.
