GIVE UP FOOD FOR LENT!

The Jeffco Action Center is facing bare cupboards while more and more hungry families enter its doors seeking help. Donations are down by 50%. They desperately need nonperishable food and Lent is a wonderful time to respond to this need. We hear about other Christians 'giving up' something to remind them of the sacrifices Jesus made for us. Won't you consider 'giving up' something; a meal out, a latte, a movie, and use the money to buy food for our neighbors in need? Let us give up all we can to fill the shopping cart in the narthex several times over by Easter.

Young Sinfonia Concert Tonight – 7:30 p.m.

Join us for an evening of beautiful music. The program will be the music of Mozart, Stamitz, Hindemith and Bloch featuring CYS Director Basil Vendryes and violinist Margaret Gutierrez as soloists. If you have not heard these young musicians before, you are in for a treat. Bring a friend. A freewill offering will be taken.

Pictorial Directory photos will be taken this week.

If you have not signed up, please do so now. You can sign up by going to the bottom of our website – www.lumc.net and clicking on the "Lifetouch" button, or call Sue West at 303-274-6706. We want all members and non-members included in this directory. You get a free 8x10 portrait and directory by having your photo taken.

Mark your calendar now for our next Interfaith Hospitality Network Rotation (housing for homeless families) March 23rd – 30th. Many hands are needed to make this a success. Check the poster in the hall to see how you can help!

Donita and Steve Banks will be selling their daughter's new book "My Little Easter Book" next Sunday in Great Hall.
