GIVE UP FOOD FOR LENT!

The Jeffco Action Center is facing bare cupboards while more and more hungry families enter its doors seeking help. Donations are down by 50%. They desperately need nonperishable food and Lent is a wonderful time to respond to this need. We hear about other Christians 'giving up' something to remind them of the sacrifices Jesus made for us. Won't you consider 'giving up' something; a meal out, a latte, a movie, and use the money to buy food for our neighbors in need? Let us give up all we can to fill the shopping cart in the narthex several times over by Easter.

Mark your calendar now for our next Interfaith Hospitality Network Rotation (housing for homeless families) March 23rd – 30th. Many hands are needed to make this a success. Sign up today in the hall.

Donita and Steve Banks will be selling their daughter's new book "My Little Easter Book" today in Great Hall. Other books will also be available. Julie Stiegemeier grew up at LUMC and now lives in Fort Wayne, IN, with her husband, Scott, a Lutheran Pastor. She is the author of nearly 20 children's books and also writes devotions, Sunday School curriculum and magazine articles. Be sure and check it out.

Usher and Greeter Training today at 12:00 in the Parlor.

The Men's Breakfasts for March are Wed., March 12th and Wed., March 26th, 7:00 a.m. at Café Del Sol. All men are invited for this time of food, fellowship and discussion.
