Outstanding Volunteer Sandy Johnson

Our outstanding volunteer for this quarter is Sandy Johnson. You will not find a more faithful or dedicated Christian than Sandy! She loves God and faithfully supports her church. Every Sunday you will find her teaching the precious Pre-school age children about the love of God. They all adore "Miss Sandy" and love coming to Sunday School because she makes it so special and fun. Sandy never misses church unless she is sick or out of town. Sandy has been married to Andy for 35 years and is the mother of Amber and Tim, both of whom have grown up in our church. Sandy, has been attending Lakewood United Methodist Church since 1976. Sandy has been a member of the Staff Parish Relations Committee and helped with Children's Church, and currently serves on the Abiding Memorials Committee, Scholarship Committee and on the Education Team. She counts the offering money and she helps out on communion Sundays, as well. And, Sandy is responsible for all the beautiful roses you see on Brentwood Street, lovingly caring for them throughout the year.

Sandy's teaching talents reach beyond the church. She volunteers two days a week teaching English as a second language classes. She also volunteers at Bridgeway each month helping to prepare its newsletter. Sandy is passionate about making life better for her family, church and community and she does it all with grace and love. When Sandy is not volunteering, she enjoys taking long walks with her friends, working in her garden, talking to her sisters on the phone. She also enjoys attending live musical performances with Andy.

Thank you Sandy for all that you do for your church and community. Not only are you helping the children of our church learn about God's love and the importance of Christian service, you are a living example for us all. God Bless You, Sandy!
